

JACK HALL RETURNS.

No Intention of Jumping Bail.
A Little Vacation.

"How do you do Jack Hall," said a burly native policeman to a clean shaven youthful looking man at the side of a Kau policeman on the W. G. Hall yesterday shortly after the arrival of that vessel in port. "You have come back to your 'Bird Cage' and sweetly singing canaries? Well, good luck to you Jack, but come along let's go up to the police station and arrange for a cot upon which you can rest your weary head."

And sure enough, there was Hall standing on the steamer's deck dressed in riding costume. His moustache was shaven and his looks otherwise changed but there was no mistake as to his identity. "I'm glad to be back," said Jack with mock gravity. "I got tired of Maui and Hawaii and came back with a friend who claims the distinction of being the crack policeman on the Kailua force."

"You see, it was this way. I didn't mean to jump bail. If I had I would not have remained on the islands. I went up to Maui on the W. G. Hall four weeks ago, to look for a job. After visiting a friend at Spreckelsville plantation I went up to Kailua, Kona, and oh, but I did have a good time. I saw what there was of that Jay town now, you bet. I explored every place in and out of town. But no, I couldn't stand it, I pined for Honolulu and here I am."

Sam Haano, the native policeman who brought Hall down, had the following story to tell: "Before the arrival at Kailua of the W. G. Hall we received a telephone message from Sheriff Yates at Waihinu saying that there was a much-wanted man aboard that steamer. It seems that Hall had been to Kau and no one knows where else. At Kailua the deputy sheriff of Kona went aboard and found Hall in a stateroom. I was sent down with prisoner. He gave the name of Jack Williams and said he was going to Maui to look for a job."

John Kuaana and J. L. Kaulahou, Hall's bondsmen, surrendered bail and the former keeper of the "bird cage" was taken away from the burly-burly of the outside world to meditate on the whys and wherefores of island travel.

KIDNEY THIEF KILLED.

Dog Gets a Butcher Knife in His Side.

A warrant was sworn out by George Holt yesterday for the arrest of Manu, a native boy in the employ of the Metropolitan Meat Market, at their slaughter house. Manu is charged with maliciously killing a dog, the property of the complainant. The circumstances under which the dog was killed are worthy of mention, as they show that the native boy did about the same thing as any one else would have done. Manu was engaged in cleaning some kidneys. A large red dog came along, picked up one of the tempting morsels and started for the street. Manu cried to the dog and the animal dropped the kidney, only to take a bite out of it as he proceeded. Manu, seeing that there was no chance of stopping the animal, hurled the butcher knife which he held in his hand. The marksmanship was good, and the blade of the knife struck the side of the dog in the region of the intestines. There were a number of howls, a few expiring gasps, and the kidney thief had gone to the happy hunting grounds. Manu was naturally very much frightened when he saw what he had done, and was as much surprised as frightened when he found a policeman with a warrant after him. The dog is valued at $50.

Thanksgiving Day.

Thanksgiving Day in the United States originated in 1621. At first the practice of observing the day of Thanksgiving in the autumn of every year was confined to New England, but it has now become national, the President appointing by proclamation the last Thursday in November as a day for national Thanksgiving. The first national English Thanksgivings were offered at St. Paul's Cathedral, for the defeat of the Spanish Armada, on the 8th day of September and November 24, 1558.

The wife of Mr. Leonard Wells, of East Brimfield, Mass., had been suffering from neuralgia for two days, not being able to sleep or hardly keep still, when Mr. Holden, the merchant there, sent her a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and asked that she give it a thorough trial. On meeting Mr. Wells the next day he was told that she was all right, the pain had left her within two hours, and that the bottle of Pain Balm was worth $5.00 if it could not be had for less. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by all dealers, BESSON, SMITH & Co., agents for H. I.

BOYCOTTING THE BRITISH.

Woman of Venezuela Organizes an Anti-English League.

CARACAS, Nov. 10.—As a result of the dispute between Great Britain and Venezuela concerning the Guiana boundaries, the women of the South American republic have organized an anti-English league, and have addressed the following appeal to their fellow citizens:

"Since Great Britain is governed by a woman, it is natural and proper for us, as daughters of Venezuela, to undertake a peaceful war against the kingdom of England, in order to oblige it to respect our country. We, who dispense money for our household needs, let us swear never to employ this money in buying any merchandise imported from England."

Sans Souci Seaside Resort.

The pleasantest, quietest, shadiest and most perfectly appointed seaside resort on the Islands. It is only four miles from the heart of the city and within easy reach of the tramcars, which run every twenty minutes or oftener. Elegantly furnished detached cottages or rooms are obtained on easy terms. The table is superior to that of any of the city hotels and all the modern conveniences are provided.

Picnics and bathing parties can obtain extra accommodations by telephoning in advance. The bathing facilities of Sans Souci are superior to those of any place on the beach. 4157-tf

THE PERKINS WINDMILL

Is new in this country, but in the United States, THOUSANDS are in use, and on account of their superior strength and easy running qualities, they have taken FIRST RANK among windmills.

We have just received a car load of Mills and can furnish on short notice STEEL GALVANIZED MILLS of 8, 10, and 12-foot diameter and WOOD MILLS of 8, 10, 12, 14, 16 and 18-foot diameter. We have DIRECT MOTION windmills for places where there are steady strong winds, and geared mills which will run in very light winds, but cannot pump so fast as the direct motion mills. Some of our mills have oiled bearings of the most approved kinds, and some the CELEBRATED GRAPHITE BEARINGS, which will run for years without any oil; also STEEL GALVANIZED TOWERS, 30 and 40 feet high.

SEND FOR THE

Perkins Catalogue

And read the description of the geared mills for farmers and stockmen. With the use of shafting and pulleys they can be made to grind corn or barley, cut fodder, turn a grindstone and saw your wood.

Wooden Towers can be erected if preferred, and we give directions for the timber and erection. We have also Gould's Lifting and Force.

PUMPS

for house or windmill use. We can furnish redwood tanks, also, of all sizes from 600 gallons to 10,000 gallons made in the best way and of the best clear redwood.

The perfect satisfaction that the Perkins Windmills and the Goulds Pumps have given wherever they have been used and properly adjusted is a guarantee of their success. Try the Perkins Mill and get something that will stand the strongest wind and yet work well in the lightest Southerly wind.
